Judge Hursh Reappointed Work Comp Administrative Law Judge in Overland Park

TOPEKA, Kan. – Pursuant to the authority set out in Senate Bill 187, Labor Secretary Lana Gordon reappointed Judge Kenneth Hursh to a four-year term as a Workers Compensation Administrative Law Judge in Overland Park.

On July 1, the Workers Compensation and Employment Security Boards Nominating Committee unanimously voted that Judge Hursh be retained for another four year term. The recommendation was sent to Secretary Gordon who approved the appointment.

"I wish Judge Hursh continued success in his role as Administrative Law Judge for the Department of Labor," said Lana Gordon, Secretary of Labor.

Judge Hursh has served as an Administrative Law judge since July 2003. Prior to that, he was Assistant Director of the Kansas Division of Workers Compensation for three years. Judge Hursh received his bachelor's and Juris Doctor degrees from the University of Kansas, and was admitted to the Kansas Bar in 1989.
